

Fun on the Farm

Enjoy the simple pleasures of small-town life at the unique farms across Maui. Discover fresh produce and one-of-a-kind products, get away from your everyday and support local Maui businesses.

1. MAUI TROPICAL PLANTATION

Take a narrated tram tour of this 60-acre working plantation. Learn about the origins and harvest techniques of Hawai'i's commercial fruit crops, including sugar cane, star fruit, bananas, coffee, macadamia nuts, papaya and more.

2. LĀ KĀHEA COMMUNITY FARM

Nestled in the heart of this tropical paradise, this farm offers a unique opportunity to explore unique fruits, learn about sustainable farming practices and experience the island's rich agricultural heritage. The guided tours are designed to delight all ages with hands-on activities, fresh fruit tastings and breathtaking views.

3. SURFING GOAT DAIRY

Nestled on the slopes of Haleakalā, Maui's largest commercial dairy is evolving into a culinary and ag-tourism haven where visitors can experience the magic of cheese-making, from interactive goat experiences to working in the dairy, or alongside a chocolatier creating amazing chocolate truffles from goat milk.

4. KULA COUNTRY FARMS

Pick strawberries (February through June) amidst breathtaking bi-coastal views at Kula Country Farms. Enjoy different colors and varieties of cooking pumpkins, mini-pumpkins and squashes at their annual pumpkin patch in October.

5. ALI'I KULA LAVENDER

This sweet-smelling farm spans over eight acres with over 25,000 lavender plants in over 40 varieties. Take a self-guided or organized garden tour and find a unique lavender gift to bring home.

6. MAUI TEA FARM

Located on the drive to Haleakalā National Park, enjoy an hour-long guided walking tour of Hawai'i's first and only tea farm. Learn all about the cultivation of tea, followed by a tea tasting.

7. LEILANI FARM SANCTUARY

Explore an island paradise where cats and rescued farm animals live in harmony. Take a personal guided tour and hear their stories. Kiss a donkey, cuddle a chicken, feed guinea pigs and frolic with goats. A visit to Leilani Farm Sanctuary changes lives and hearts — yours and theirs.
