

Attractions and Adventure

As the vibrant center of the Hawaiian Islands, there's always something to do on O'ahu. If you're looking for an entertaining and educational experience that's fun for the whole family, take a day trip to one of these popular attractions.

1. HONOLULU ZOO

Conveniently located in Waikīkī for families to enjoy, the zoo is home to 900 different animals from the tropics and even rare native Hawaiian birds.

2. HAWAIIAN RAILWAY SOCIETY

Journey through the stunning landscapes of West O'ahu on this historic railroad — offering an educational experience and breathtaking scenery that can only be seen from this train, perfect for families and history buffs alike.

3. DOLE PLANTATION

Make your way through Dole's Pineapple Garden Maze, named the world's largest maze in 2008. Or ride the Pineapple Express Train, a two-mile, fully narrated train tour for kids and adults. And, of course, try some delicious pineapple or a famous Dole Whip.

4. POLYNESIAN CULTURAL CENTER

Immerse yourself in Polynesian culture at this 42-acre hands-on attraction, featuring six villages representing six island nations. For Polynesian dances, music and blazing fire knife dancing, attend their lū'au and award-winning show, Hā: Breath of Life. For an inspiring show about Polynesian culture, start your day with Huki: A Canoe Celebration.

5. SEA LIFE PARK HAWAII

Learn about our beloved marine life at a fun, family-friendly and interactive venue on the scenic eastern coast of O'ahu. Visit habitats and exhibits, feed a bonu (Hawaiian Green Sea Turtle), see a fantastic dolphin show and more.
